

Please don't change the Wisconsin no-call law unless you want to make it more restrictive by stopping political campaigns from intruding on our privacy. I travel an hour each direction to my employment making an 11 1/2 hour working day. My home is my sanctuary and I don't appreciate the intrusion of telemarketers.